II. TRIAL PREPARATION

III. CONDUCT OF ATTORNEYS AND PARTIES

IDEADLINES*A. PARTIES/PLEADINGS

The Court has established a cut-off date for adding parties or amending pleadings. All motions to add parties or to amend the pleadings must be noticed to be heard on or before the cut-off date. All unserved parties will be dismissed at the time of the pretrial conference pursuant to Local Rule 16–8.1.

B. DISCOVERY AND DISCOVERY CUT-OFF

1. Discovery Cut-off: The Court has established a cut-off date for discovery and expert discovery if applicable. This is not the date by which discovery request must be served; it is the date by which all discovery, including all hearing on any related motions, is to be completed. The parties should review carefully any motion requirements of the assigned magistrate judge to ensure that motions are made timely.

2. Discovery Disputes: Counsel are expected to comply with all Local Rules and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure concerning discovery. Whenever possible, the Court expects counsel to resolve discovery problems among themselves in a courteous, reasonable, and professional manner. The Court expects that counsel will adhere strictly to the Civility and Professionalism Guidelines, which can be found on the Court's website under “Attorney Information>Attorney Admissions.”

3. Discovery Motions: Any motion challenging the adequacy of discovery responses must be filed, served, and calendared sufficiently in advance of the discovery cut-off date to permit the responses to be obtained before that date if the motion is granted

4. Depositions: All depositions must commence sufficiently in advance of the discovery cut-off date to permit their completion and to permit the deposing party enough time to bring any discovery motions concerning the deposition

1 before the cut-off date.

2 5. Written Discovery: All interrogatories, requests for production of 3 documents, and requests for admissions must be served sufficiently in advance of 4 the discovery cut-off date to permit the discovering party enough time to 5 challenge (via motion practice) responses deemed to be deficient.

6 6. Expert Discovery: All disclosures must be made in writing. The parties
7 should begin expert discovery shortly after the initial designation of experts. The 8 pretrial conference and trial dates will not be continued merely because expert
9 discovery is not completed. Failure to comply with these or any other orders 10 concerning expert discovery may result in the expert being excluded as a witness.

11 C. MOTIONS

12 The Court has established a cut-off date for the hearing of motions. All 13 motions must be noticed so that the hearing takes place on or before the motion
14 cut-off date. Counsel must provide Chambers with conformed paper chambers
15 copies of all documents. Chambers copies should not be put in envelopes.
16 Counsel should consult the Court's Standing Order, previously provided, to 17 determine the Court's requirements concerning motions. A copy of the Standing
18 Order is also available on the Court's website at www.cacd.uscourts.gov>Judges'
19 Procedures and Schedules>Hon. Dale S. Fischer.

20 D. PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

21 1. A pretrial conference date has been set pursuant to Rule 16 of the 22 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Rule 16-8. Each party appearing in 23 this action must be represented at the pretrial conference by the attorney who is to 24 have charge of the conduct of the trial on behalf of such party, unless excused for 25 good cause. Counsel should not claim to be co-lead trial counsel for the purpose
26 of avoiding this requirement. If counsel purport to be co-lead trial counsel, both 27 must attend the pretrial conference. Counsel should be prepared to discuss 28 streamlining the trial, including presentation of testimony by deposition excerpts or

1 summaries, time limits, stipulations to admissions of exhibits and undisputed facts.

2 2. STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH LOCAL RULE 16 IS REQUIRED.
3 THIS ORDER SETS FORTH SOME DIFFERENT AND SOME ADDITIONAL
4 REQUIREMENTS. THIS COURT DOES NOT EXEMPT PRO PER PARTIES
5 FROM THE REQUIREMENTS OF RULE 16. Carefully prepared memoranda of 6 contentions of fact and law, witness lists, a joint exhibit lists, and a proposed 7 pretrial conference order must be submitted in accordance with the Rules and this 8 Order, and the format of the proposed pretrial conference order must conform to 9 the format set forth in Appendix A to the Local Rules. Failure of documents to 10 comply with these requirements may result in the pretrial conference being taken 11 off-calendar or continued, or in other sanctions.

12 3. The memoranda of contentions of fact and law, witness lists, and the 13 joint exhibit list must be filed not later than the dates set by the Court.

14 4. In addition to the requirements of Local Rule 16, the witness lists must 15 include a brief (one or two paragraph) description of the testimony, and a time
16 estimate for both direct and cross-examination (separately stated). If two or more 17 witnesses will testify on the same topics, counsel must explain why more than one 18 witness is necessary. A separate version of the witness list containing only the 19 names of the witnesses and a separate column to insert the dates on which the 20 witness testified, and the joint exhibit list, must be submitted to the Chambers
21 email box in Word format. Mandatory paper chambers copies must also be 22 submitted.

23 5. Other documents to be filed in preparation for, and issues to be 24 addressed at, the pretrial conference are discussed below.

25 E. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR)

26 PROCEDURES/NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT

27 1. Counsel must complete an ADR proceeding no later than the date set by 28 the Court.

2. No case will proceed to trial unless all parties, including an officer of all corporate parties (with full authority to settle the case), have appeared personally at an ADR proceeding.

3. If settlement is reached, it must be reported immediately to the courtroom deputy clerk (CRD) as required by Local Rule 16-15.7 regardless of the day or time settlement is reached. In addition, counsel must immediately send a notification of the settlement to the Chambers email box

4. In all cases set for jury trial, the parties must notify the Court no later than the Wednesday preceding the Tuesday trial date of any settlement so that the necessary arrangements can be made to schedule a different case for trial or notify the members of the public who would otherwise be reporting for jury duty that their services are not needed on that date.

5. Failure to comply with these notification requirements will cause counsel/parties to be charged for the costs related to proceeding jurors and may result in the imposition of sanctions on counsel for one or more parties, their clients, or both.

II

ADDITIONAL TRIAL PREPARATION

A. MOTIONS IN LIMINE

All motions in limine must be filed by the date established by the Court. Each side is limited to five motions in limine unless the Court orders otherwise for good cause shown. Counsel are to meet and confer to determine whether opposing counsel intends to introduce the disputed evidence, etc. and to attempt to reach an agreement that would obviate the motion. Opposition must be filed by the date established by the Court. The Court generally will rule on motions in limine at the pretrial conference. Motions in limine should address specific issues (i.e., not “to exclude all hearsay,” etc.). Motions in limine should not be disguised motions for summary adjudication of issues.

B. JURY INSTRUCTIONS, SPECIAL VERDICT FORMS, VOIR DIRE, JURY SELECTION

1. At least fourteen days before the meeting of counsel required by Local Rule 16–2 (which must occur at least 40 days before the date set for the pretrial conference), plaintiff(s) counsel must serve on defense counsel proposed jury instructions and proposed verdict/special verdict forms. Within 7 days, defense counsel must serve objections, if any, to those instructions and verdict forms, as well as any proposed alternative or additonal instructions and verdict forms. Before or at the Rule 16-2 meeting, counsel must attempt to come to agreement on the proposed jury instructions and verdict forms.

2. When the Manual of Model Jury Instructions for the Ninth Circuit provide an applicable jury instructions, the parties should submit the most recent versions, modified and supplemented to fit the circumstances of this case. Where language appears in brackets, the appropriate language should be selected. All blanks should be completed. Where California law applies, counsel should use the current edition of California Jury Instructions - - Civil (BAJI or CACI). If neither is applicable, counsel should consult the instructions manuals from other circuits or states, as applicable. When submitting other than Ninth Circuit or California instructions, counsel should be sure that the law on which the instructioins is based is the same as Ninth Circuit law (or California or other state law, if applicable) on the subject. Counsel may submit alternatives to the Ninth Circuit model jury instructions, or BAJI or CACI, only if counsel has a reasoned argument that those instructions do not properly state the law or they are incomplete.

3. The Court has its own introductory instructions (instructions read before opening statements). Counsel should provide only instructions to be read after the evidence has been submitted or that may be appropriate during trial.

4. Each requested instruction must (a) cite the authority or source of the

1 instructions, (b) be set forth in full, (c) be on a separate page, (d) be numbered, (e)
2 cover only one subject or principle of law, and (f) not repeat principals of law
3 contained in any other requested instructions.

4 5. By the date set by the Court, counsel must file with the Court and submit 5 (electronically to the Chambers email box and in paper form) a JOINT set of jury
6 instructions on which there is agreement. The Court expects counsel to agree on 7 the substantial majority of jury instructions, particularly when pattern or model
8 instructions provide a statement of applicable law. If one party fails to comply 9 with the provisions of this section, the other party must file a unilateral set of jury
10 instructions, unless that party wishes to waive jury trial.

11 6. At the same time, each party must file with the Court and submit
12 (electronically to the Chambers email box in paper form) its proposed jury
13 instructions that are objected to by any other party. Each disputed instruction 14 must have attached a short (one or two paragraph) statement, including points and 15 authorities in support of the instructions as well as brief statement, including 16 points and authorities, in support of any objections. A proposed alternative 17 instruction must be provided, if applicable. If the Court believes there are so 18 many disputed instructions that the trial would be unnecessarily interrupted in 19 order for the Court to resolve disputes, the Court will determine that the matter is 20 not yet ready to be tried, and will order counsel to continue to meet and confer
21 until most of the disputes are resolved.

22 7. Counsel must provide the documents described in paragraphs 5 and 6 to 23 the Chambers email box in Word format at the time they file their proposed jury 24 instructions.

25 8. The Court will send one or more copies of the instructions into the jury
26 room for the jury's use during deliberations. Therefore, in addition to the copies
27 described above, the Chambers email versions must contain a "clean" set of jury 28 instructions, containing only the text of the instructions (one per page) with the caption “Instruction No. [Leave blank] at the top (eliminating table of contents, titles, supporting authority, etc.). This document must have page numbers.

9. Counsel must provide an index of all instructions submitted, which must include the following:

- a. The number of the instruction.
- b. The title of the instruction;
- c. the source of the instruction and any relevant case citations;
- d. The page number of the instruction.

For example:

Number	Title	Source	Page
1	Duty of the Jury	9th Cir. 1.4	1

10. FAILURE TO FOLLOW THE PRECEDING PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION WILL SUBJECT THE NON-COMPLYING PARTY AND ATTORNEY TO SANCTIONS AND WILL BE DEEMED TO CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

11. During the trial and before argument, the Court will meet with counsel and settle the instructions, and counsel will have an opportunity to make a further record concerning their objections.

12. At the time of lodging the proposed pretrial conference order, counsel should file a jointly prepared one or two page statment of the case to be read by the Court to the prospective panel of jurors before commencement of voir dire.

13. The Court will conduct the voir dire. The Court provides a list of basic questions, and may provide a list of additional questions to jurors before voir dire. (This is not a questionnaire to be completed by jurors.) Counsel may, but are not required to, file and submit (electronically to the Chambers email box and in paper form in Word format) a list of proposed case-specific voir dire questions at the time they lodge the proposed pretrial conference order

14. In most cases the Court will conduct its initial voir dire of 16 prospective jurors who will be seated in the jury box. Generally the Court will select eight jurors.

15. Each side will have three peremptory challenges. Once all challenges for cause and peremptory challenges are exercised, the eight jurors in the lowest numbered seats will be the jury. If fewer than eight jurors remain, the Court may decide to proceed with six or seven jurors.

C. GLOSSARY, TRIAL EXHIBITS WITNESS LISTS, ETC.

1. All counsel are to meet not later than ten days before trial and to stipulate, so far as is possible, to foundation, to waiver of the best evidence rule, and to those exhibits that may be received into evidence at the start of the trial.

2. At least one week before trial, counsel must send to the Chambers email box in Word format:

a. A case-specific glossary for the court reporter that includes applicable medical, scientific, or technical terms, slang, the names and spellings of case names likely to be cited, street/city/country names, all parties/entities involved in the case, names of people interviewed/deposed, names of family members, friends, or others who might be mentioned, and other case-specific terminology;

b. The party's witness list, with a column to add the date on which the witness testified;

c. The joint exhibit list in the form specified in Local Rule 16-6. An annotated exhibit list identifying the exhibits to be received into evidence at the start of the trial must also be provided.

3. On the first morning of trial, counsel must submit to the CRD:

a. All original exhibits (except those to be used for impeachment only), with official exhibit tags attached and bearing the same number shown on the exhibit list. Exhibit tags may be obtained from the receptionist in the Public

1 Intake Section, located on the 1st floor of the Edward R. Roybal Federal Building
2 at 255 East Temple St., Room 180. Digital exhibit tags are also available on the 3 Court's website under Court forms>General forms>Form G-14A (plaintiff) and 4 G-14B (defendant). Exhibit must be numbered 1, 2, 3, etc., NOT 1.1, 1.2, etc.
5 and in accordance with Local Rule 16-6. The defense exhibit numbers must not 6 duplicate plaintiff's numbers. If a "blow-up" is an enlargement of an existing 7 exhibit, it must be designated with the number of the original exhibit followed by 8 an "A.";

9 b. Two sets of the exhibits that can be reproduced (one for the Court 10 and one for witnesses) placed in three-ring binders with divider tabs containing 11 the exhibit numbers. The face and spine of the binders must be marked with the 12 case name and number, the volume number, and the number range of the exhibits
13 in the binder. Each binder must contain an index of the exhibits included in the 14 volume.

15 4. A copy of the exhibit list with all admitted exhibits will be given to the 16 jury during deliberations. Counsel must review and approve the exhibit list with 17 the CRD before the list is given to the jury.

18 5. Where a significant number of exhibits will be admitted, the Court 19 encourages counsel, preferably by agreement, to consider ways in which 20 testimony about exhibits may be intelligible to the jury while it is being 21 presented. Counsel should consider such devices as jury notebooks for admitted
22 exhibits, or enlargements of important exhibits. The Court has an Elmo and other 23 equipment available for use during trial. Information concerning training on the 24 use of electronic equipment is available. Details are posted on the Court's 25 website. To make reservations for training, call 213-894-3061 The Court does 26 not permit exhibits to be "published" by passing them up and down the jury box.
27 Exhibits may be displayed briefly using the screens in the courtroom, unless the 28 process becomes too time-consuming.

1 6. Counsel must not attempt to display or use any charts or enlargements of 2 exhibits unless all counsel have agreed to their use or objections have been heard
3 and a ruling has been made.

4 D. TRIAL

5 1. On the day of jury selection, trial will begin at 9:00 a.m. Counsel must 6 be prepared to go on the record at 8:30 a.m. Thereafter, trial days are generally
7 Tuesday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., with three fifteen-minute breaks.
8 When necessary, trials may continue beyond the normal schedule. If counsel 9 contemplate that this schedule will be problematic due to the availability of 10 witnesses, counsel should provide details to the Court at the pretrial conference.

11 2. On the day of jury selection, the Court reserves the time from 8:30 a.m.
12 to 9:00 a.m. to handle legal and administrative matters. Jury selection will begin 13 promptly at 9:00 a.m. or as soon as jurors are available. Thereafter, legal and 14 administrative matters must be addressed between 7:45 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. All 15 counsel are urged to anticipate matters that may need to be addressed outside of 16 the presence of the jury and to raise them during this period or at the end of the 17 day. The Court does not make jurors wait while counsel discuss matters that 18 should have been addressed previously. Counsel are urged to consider any 19 unusual substantive or evidentiary issues that may arise, and to advise the Court of 20 such issues as early as possible. Short briefs addressing such disputed issues are 21 welcome.

22 3. Before trial begins, the Court will give counsel an opportunity to discuss 23 administrative matters and anticipated procedural or legal issues. Before trial
24 begins, and as soon as the information becomes available to counsel, counsel 25 should advise the court of any concerns or accommodations that are requested for 26 parties or witnesses. During trial, if there are any matters to be discussed outside
27 the presence of the jury, counsel must advise the CRD of the request. The Court
28 discourages sidebars during trial.

4. All orders for transcripts must be ordered through the court reporters, Pat Cuneo, who can be contacted through www.patcuneo.com

III

CONDUCT OF ATTORNEYS AND PARTIES

A. OPENING STATEMENTS, EXAMINIG WITNESSES, AND SUMMATION

1. Counsel must use the lectern for opening statements, examination of witnesses, and summation.

2. Counsel must not consume time by writing out words, drawing charts or diagrams, etc. Counsel may do so in advance and explain that the item was prepared earlier as ordered by the Court to save time.

3. The Court will establish reasonable time estimates for opening and closing, arguments, examination of witnesses, etc.

B. OBJECTIONS TO QUESTIONS

1. Counsel must not use objectins for the purpose of making a speech, recapitulating testimony, or attempting to guide the witness.

2. When objecting, counsel must rise to state the objection and state only that counsel objects and the legal ground of objection. If counsel wishes to argue an objection further, counsel must ask for permission to do so.

C. GENERAL DECORUM

1. Counsel should not approach the CRD or the witness box without specific permission. If permission is given, counsel should return to the lecturn when the purpose has been accomplished. Counsel should not question a witness at the witness stand.

2. Counsel and parties should rise when addressing the Court, and when the Court or the jury enters or leaves the courtroom.

3. Counsel should address all remarks to the Court. Counsel are not to address the CRD, the court reporter, persons in the audience, or opposing counsel

1 while on the record. If counsel wish to speak with opposing counsel, counsel
2 must ask permission to do so. Any request for the re-reading of questions or 3 answers must be addressed to the Court. Such requests should be limited and are 4 not likely to be granted.

5 4. Counsel should not address or refer to witnesses or parties by first name
6 alone. Young witnesses (under 14) may, however, be addressed and referred to by 7 first name.

8 5. Counsel must not offer a stipulation unless counsel has conferred with 9 opposing counsel and has verified that the stipulation will be acceptable.

10 6. While Court is in session, counsel must not leave counsel table to confer
11 with any personnel or witnesses unless permission has been granted in advance.

12 7. Counsel should not be facial expression, nodding, or other conduct 13 exhibit any opinion, adverse or favorable, concerning any testimony being given 14 by a witness, statements or arguments by opposing counsel, or rulings by the 15 Court. Counsel should admonish counsel's own clients and witnesses to avoid 16 such conduct.

17 8. Counsel should not talk to jurors at all, and should not talk to co-18 counsel, opposing counsel, witnesses, or clients where the conversation can be 19 overheard by jurors. Each counsel should admonish counsel's own clients and 20 witnesses to avoid such conduct.

21 9. Where a party has more than one lawyers, only one may conduct the 22 direct or cross-examination of a particular witness, or make objections as to that 23 witness.

24 D. PROMPTNESS OF COUNSEL AND WITNESSES

25 1. The Court makes every effort to begin proceedings at the time set.
26 Promptness is expected from counsel and witnesses. Once counsel are engaged in 27 trial, the trial is counsel's first priority. The Court will not delay the trial or 28 inconvenience jurors except under extraordinary circumstances. The Court will

1 advise other courts that counsel are engaged in trial in this Court on request.

2 2. If a witness was on the stand at a recess or adjournment, counsel must
3 have the witness back on the stand, ready to proceed, when the court session
4 resumes.

5 3. Counsel must notify the CRD in advance if any witness should be 6 accommodated based on a disability or for other reasons.

7 4. No presenting party may be without witnesses. If counsel has no more
8 witnesses to call and there is more than a brief delay, the Court may deem that 9 party to have rested.

10 5. The Court attempts to cooperate with professional witnesses and will,
11 except in extraordinary circumstances, accommodate them by permitting them to 12 be called out of sequence. Counsel must anticipate any such possibility and 13 discuss it with opposing counsel. If there is an objection, counsel must confer
14 with the Court in advance.

15 E. EXHIBITS

16 1. Each counsel should keep counsel's own list of exhibits and should note 17 when each has been admitted into evidence.

18 2. Each counsel is responsible for any exhibits that counsel secures from 19 the CRD and must return them before leaving the courtroom at the end of the 20 session.

21 3. An exhibit not previously marked should, at the time of its first mention,
22 be accompanied by a request that the CRD mark it for identification. To save 23 time, counsel must show a new exhibit to opposing counsel before it is mentioned 24 in court.

25 4. Counsel are to advise the CRD of any agreements they have with respect
26 to the proposed exhibits and as to those exhibits that may be received so that no
27 further motion to admit need be made.

28 5. When referring to an exhibit, counsel should refer to its exhibit number

1 whenever possible. Witnesses should be asked to do the same.

2 6. Counsel must not ask witnesses to draw charts or diagrams or ask the 3 Court's permission for a witness to do so. If counsel wishes to question a witness 4 in connection with graphic aids, the material must be fully prepared before the 5 court session starts.

6 F. DEPOSITIONS

7 1. All depositions to be used at trial, either as evidence or potentially for 8 impeachment, must be lodged with the CRD on the first day of trial or such earlier
9 date as the Court may order. Counsel should verify with the CRD that the 10 relevant deposition is in the CRD's possession.

11 2. In using depositions of an adverse party for impeachment, either one of 12 the following procedures may be used:

13 a. If counsel wishes to read the questions and answers as alleged 14 impeachment and ask the witness no further questions on that subject, counsel
15 must first state the page and line where the reading begins and the page and line
16 where the reading ends, and allow time for any objection. Counsel may then read 17 the portions of the deposition into the record.

18 b. If counsel wishes to ask the witness further questions on the 19 subject matter, the deposition is placed in front of the witness and the witness is 20 told to read silently the pages and lines involved. Counsel may either ask the 21 witness further questions on the matter and then read the quotations, or read the 22 quotations and then ask further questions. Counsel should have an extra copy of 23 the deposition for this purpose.

24 3. Where a witness is absent and the witness's testimony is offered by 25 deposition, counsel may (a) have a reader occupy the witness chair and read the 26 testimony of the witness while the examining layer asks the questions, or (b)
27 have counsel read both the questions and answers.
